Heather Norton, MSW is the Director of DD Community Supports Services for the Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services. She has worked in the field of intellectual disabilities for the past twenty five years and currently sits on the Virginia APSE Board as well as the Virginia Autism Council. She started her career in Pennsylvania at a summer camp for individuals with intellectual disabilities and stayed with this company in their residential program for 10 years. After this she worked for two children's behavioral health programs supporting children with various mental health diagnoses and autism. She relocated to Virginia in 2004, at which time she started working for Southside Virginia Training Center as the Director of Program Services where she oversaw the vocational, habilitation, and program centers. Prior to working at DBHDS, she worked for Chesterfield Community Services Board, first as the services manager for CES and then as the Assistant Director of Community Services.
