CALL TO ORDER

Jackie Dare called meeting to order at 1:25 pm. Welcome committee members.

AGENDA:

Corrections to the agenda: Added recruitment, under new business.

MINUTES:

January minutes were motioned to be approved by Roberta Anderson and seconded by Jackie Dare. The committee approved the minutes by unanimous vote.

PUBLIC COMMENTS: None

AGENDA ITEMS/NEW BUSINESS:

- Announced: Empowering Families – Adding Substance Abuse-Intensive Outpatient services to their Charlottesville office
- LHRC Training – 12VAC35-115-50 Dignity and 12VAC35-115-70 Participation in Decision Making and Consent. Completed
- No provider business at this meeting
- Recruitment Discussion: Jackie Dare agrees to serve another term. Betsy's term ends this year and she agrees to serve another term. [NOTE: Lana will mail Betsy a reappointment form to bring to the next meeting.] Jackie will check with Phoebe & Arla Jean to see if each is able/willing to do another term. Roberta's term ends in 2019. Members agree there is a need for a flyer to be used as a recruitment tool. Betsy will make a couple phone calls to people who may be interested & have a relevant background. She will also research whether or not there is a local NAMI to draw from.

ADVOCATE ANNOUNCEMENTS

- The Office of Human Rights (OHR) is offering 5 regional human rights trainings to agency directors and their designees. OHR has completed 3 trainings in New Market, Fredericksburg, and Charlottesville. The upcoming trainings are scheduled on April 17 in Fairfax and April 27 in Lynchburg. Registration is closed for all trainings.
- OHR has two new regional advocates. Ann Pascoe was recently hired as the regional advocate for Region II and Sharae Henderson will be the newly assigned regional advocate for Region IV.
- DBHDS is in the process of conducting a look-behind review in state facilities. Reviews are ongoing but are going well at this time.
- There will be a CHRIS training on May 18, 2018 from 10:00am-12:00pm. If interested, please contact Lana Hurt at lane.hurt@dbhds.virginia.gov.
