- Via online complaint form at <https://vsbc.virginiainteractive.org/>
- Via electronic (email) complaint by completing the following:
  - Download and open the complaint form (PDF file) in Adobe Acrobat to fill it out. Using email software, send the completed PDF file as an attachment to webintake@vsb.org or mail it (do not use Adobe's Share File option).
- Via mail directed to: Intake Office, 1111 East Main, Suite 700, Richmond, Virginia 23219-0026
  - Specific instructions for the content needed for mailed letters can be found here: <https://www.vsb.org/site/regulation/inquiry>

Civil Rights and Human Rights Complaints:

Civil rights are designed to protect individuals' freedom from violation by governments, political and social organizations, and individuals. They protect against discrimination in civil and political society, but this protection depends on the state or nation in which the citizen belongs: Civil rights are in place to protect citizens from discrimination and to grant them certain freedoms in that nation.

If you would like to file a civil rights complaint:

- Via mail directed to: Office of the Attorney General, Office of Civil Rights, 202 North 9th Street, Richmond, Virginia 23219
- Via electronic (email) complaint at civilrights@oag.state.va.us
- Via phone at 804-225-2292
- Via fax at 804-225-3294

It is the policy of the Commonwealth of Virginia to:

Safeguard all individuals within the Commonwealth from unlawful discrimination because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, pregnancy, childbirth or related medical conditions, age, military status, or disability in employment, places of public accommodation, including educational institutions, in real estate transactions; preserve the public safety, health and general welfare; and further the interests, rights and privileges of individuals within the Commonwealth; and protect citizens of the Commonwealth against unfounded charges of unlawful discrimination. If a caller would like to file a human rights complaint that is unrelated to services provided by a licensed/funded/operated by DBHDS facility or provider, please refer the caller to:

For employment related human rights complaints:

- Via phone at 804-225-2292

- Via phone at 804-225-2292
- Via fax at 804-225-3294

Fair Housing Complaints:

Federal and state fair housing laws protects people from discrimination when trying to rent an apartment, buy a house, obtain a mortgage, or purchase homeowner's insurance. Fair housing requirements apply to all housing providers: property managers, owners, landlords, real estate agents, banks, savings institutions, credit unions, insurance companies, mortgage lenders, and appraisers. For fair housing complaints not associated with DBHDS funded, licensed, or operated programs:

- Via online complaint form at <https://www.dpor.virginia.gov/FairHousing>
- Via phone at 804-367-8530 or 888-551-3247
- Via electronic (email) complaint at fairhousing@dpor.virginia.gov

Social Security Complaints:

The United States Social Security Administration is an independent agency of the U.S. federal government that administers Social Security, a social insurance program consisting of retirement, disability and survivor benefits. To qualify for most of these benefits, most workers pay Social Security taxes on their earnings; the claimant's benefits are based on the wage earner's contributions. Otherwise benefits such as Supplemental Security Income are given based on need.

- Via online complaint form at Office of the Inspector General: Report Fraud, Waste, or Abuse Form, Social Security \(ssa.gov\)

- Via contacting your local SSA office in person or in writing. You can get the address of your local SSA office by plugging in your zip code at the Office Locator link or by calling 800-772-1213 (TTY 800-325-0778).
- Via contacting the national office of the SSA. You can write a letter to the following address, detailing your complaint:
  - Social Security Administration
Office of Public Inquiries
1100 West High Rise
6401 Security Blvd.
Baltimore, MD 21235

For specific SSA discrimination issues and unfair treatment:

If your complaint specifically has to do with discrimination or unfair treatment by an administrative law judge, the SSA has specific forms you can complete:

Complaints of discrimination: If you feel you were unfairly treated on the basis of your race, color, national origin, lack of proficiency in English, religion, gender, sexual orientation, age, or disability, you may file a formal complaint with the SSA. Such complaints should be registered within 180 days of the action about which you are complaining.

Mail the signed, dated discrimination complaint form, along with your written consent to allow the SSA to reveal your name in the course of its investigation, to the following address:

Social Security Administration
Civil Rights Complaint Adjudication Office
P.O. Box 17788
Baltimore, MD 21235-7788

For SSA complaints of unfair treatment by administrative law judges:

Your complaint should include:

All of your basic contact information;
Your Social Security number;
The name of the administrative law judge about whom you are complaining;
When the incident occurred; and,
Names and contact information of any witnesses.

Your complaint should state your concerns as precisely as possible and what you considered to be unfair. Make clear the actions and words to which you object.

The SSA provides some background on complaining about an administrative law judge at the SSA website. Send your written complaint to the following address:

Office of Disability Adjudication and Review
Division of Quality Service
5107 Leesburg Pike, Suites 1702/1703
Falls Church, VA 22041-3255

For Complaints Involving Fraud:

The Inspector General Act of 1978, as amended, allows the Office of the Inspector General (OIG) at the Social Security Administration (SSA) to collect your information, which OIG may use to investigate alleged fraud, waste, abuse, and misconduct related to SSA programs and operations. Providing the information is voluntary, but not providing all or part of the information may limit our ability to conduct a complete investigation. As law permits, we may use and share the information you submit, including with other Federal and local government agencies, and others, as outlined in the routine uses within System of Records Notices (SORN) OIG-001 and OIG-002, available at www.ssa.gov/privacy . When appropriate, the information you submit may also be provided to the SSA for use in computer matching programs to establish or verify eligibility for SSA programs and to recoup debts under these programs. All SSA SORNs are also available at www.ssa.gov/privacy .

If you would like to report fraud, such as:

- Misusing a Social Security number or Social Security benefits
- Providing false or misleading information to begin or continue receiving benefits
- Hiding benefit eligibility factors such as work, earnings, disability, or living arrangements
- Misuse or fraud by a representative payee

Please refer to Report Fraud | Office of the Inspector General \(ssa.gov\)

Reporters may remain completely anonymous and should follow the directions provided in the link.

For Complaints Involving Discrimination against a Job Applicant or Employee

The U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) is responsible for enforcing federal laws that make it illegal to discriminate against a job applicant or an employee because of the person's race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, or related conditions, gender identity, and sexual orientation), national origin, age (40 or older), disability or genetic information.

Most employers with at least 15 employees are covered by EEOC laws (20 employees in age discrimination cases). Most labor unions and employment agencies are also covered.

The laws apply to all types of work situations, including hiring, firing, promotions, harassment, training, wages, and benefits.
