NOT GUILTY BY REASON OF INSANITY – OUTPATIENT EVALUATION AND HEARING DATE UPON FINDING OF REASONABLE GROUND TO BELIEVE CONDITIONAL RELEASE SHOULD BE REVOKED

The Acquittee having been previously found not guilty by reason of insanity and later placed on conditional release, pursuant to Virginia Code Section 19.2-182.7, and the Court finding reasonable ground to believe that the Acquittee has violated the conditions of his release or is no longer a proper subject for conditional release based on application of the criteria for conditional release, hereby

ORDERS AND ADJUDGES that

1. Pursuant to Virginia Code Section 19.2-182.8, the Acquittee shall be evaluated on an outpatient basis, by _____, a psychiatrist or clinical psychologist qualified by training and experience to perform forensic evaluations. The evaluator's report shall be sent to the Court on or before _____.
2. The evaluator shall assess and report on the Acquittee's need for inpatient hospitalization by reviewing his condition with respect to the factors set forth in Virginia Code Section 19.2-182.3. In assessing whether the Acquittee is currently a proper subject for conditional release, the evaluator shall review his condition with respect to his compliance with his current conditional release plan, as reported by the supervising community services board, and the criteria set forth for conditional release in Virginia Code Section 19.2-182.7.
3. A hearing shall be held in this Court on _____ o'clock on the _____day of _____, 20__ to determine whether the Court shall revoke the Acquittee's conditional release and order him returned to the custody of the Commissioner. The Acquittee shall have the right to be present at the hearing, the right to the assistance of counsel in preparation for and during the hearing, and the right to introduce evidence and cross-examine witnesses at the hearing.
